This is now time to abandon NZ's nuclear-free stance

Right of reply.

An anti-nuclear spokesman's reply to an attack on the establishment.

By Nicky Hager

As long as there have been people campaigning to rid the world of nuclear weapons, they have been the victims of the establishment of being anti-American, and anti-sympathisers, and of deliberately trying to disrupt the public.

Commander answers the charges

COMMANDER Richard Jackson responds to Nicky Hager:

I have corrected what was written about the Nuclear Free Mothers of Peace who I believe were victims of manipulation. They were not manipulated by me, but by the media. The “Nuclear Free Mothers of Peace” were victims of manipulation. They were not manipulated by me, but by the media.